

Hamilton Presbytery &
Scripture Union Scot-

Date: Saturday 6th February 2010

Location: Jackson Church,
Airdrie, Glen Road, ML6 8BN

Time: 9:45am–3:30pm

Price: £5.00/person, or book 3 places and get 4th place free. (Payment can be made on the day, but please book in advance.)

A conference for churches who care about youth ministry and want to create nurturing communities, where young people can thrive, and find a spiritual home.

Hamilton Presbytery &
Scripture Union Scot-

Date: Saturday 6th February 2010

Location: Jackson Church,
Airdrie, Glen Road, ML6 8BN

Time: 9:45am–3:30pm

Price: £5.00/person, or book 3 places and get 4th place free. (Payment can be made on the day, but please book in advance.)

A conference for churches who care about youth ministry and want to create nurturing communities, where young people can thrive, and find a spiritual home.

Programme:

9:45am: Registration & Coffee

10:00am: Keynote address given by Jen Robertson

10:30am–12:30pm: Seminars (2 Sessions of 1 hour each, see opposite for details)

12:30pm: Lunch (Please bring your own lunch—tea, coffee, juice will be supplied)

1:15pm: Seminars (2 Sessions of 1 hour each, see opposite for details)

3:15pm: Time to reflect

To book please contact
Jen Robertson on 0141 569 0623 or email
jen.robertson@suscotland.org.uk

Morning Seminars (choose 2 from 3)

“Integration, not segregation”

How to include young people in the whole of the church—why and how?

“How does faith grow?”

What does it mean to have faith in today’s culture? What is faith development, how does it happen and what does that mean for our youth ministry?

“Making Connections”

How can we integrate our youth ministry with our local community and schools?

Afternoon Seminars (choose 2 from 3)

“Growing a youth ministry team”

The ins and outs of caring for volunteers, encouraging personal spiritual growth, resourcing and nurturing them.

“Helping young people to be followers/disciples of Christ”

How do we nurture young people in their faith? How can we advise them on prayer, giving, the sacraments and service?

“Creating a positive community”

How can we create a community for young people to thrive? How can we care for them and provide encouragement towards positive behaviour?

Programme:

9:45am: Registration & Coffee

10:00am: Keynote address given by Jen Robertson

10:30am–12:30pm: Seminars (2 Sessions of 1 hour each, see opposite for details)

12:30pm: Lunch (Please bring your own lunch—tea, coffee, juice will be supplied)

1:15pm: Seminars (2 Sessions of 1 hour each, see opposite for details)

3:15pm: Time to reflect

To book please contact
Jen Robertson on 0141 569 0623 or email
jen.robertson@suscotland.org.uk

Morning Seminars (choose 2 from 3)

“Integration, not segregation”

How to include young people in the whole of the church—why and how?

“How does faith grow?”

What does it mean to have faith in today’s culture? What is faith development, how does it happen and what does that mean for our youth ministry?

“Making Connections”

How can we integrate our youth ministry with our local community and schools?

Afternoon Seminars (choose 2 from 3)

“Growing a youth ministry team”

The ins and outs of caring for volunteers, encouraging personal spiritual growth, resourcing and nurturing them.

“Helping young people to be followers/disciples of Christ”

How do we nurture young people in their faith? How can we advise them on prayer, giving, the sacraments and service?

“Creating a positive community”

How can we create a community for young people to thrive? How can we care for them and provide encouragement towards positive behaviour?