Poetry

Three poetry books for children, by Steve Turner, are an incredibly valuable resource for anyone involved in children's ministry and in particular in schools ministry. It's Your Move!

We are now in the summer term in our schools. For the P7s this is their last term as primary school children. As churches we can show our care and support to these school leavers with a great little book called "It's your move". It is full of ideas and top tips for moving on to secondary school. Some churches simply give it as a gift to all the P7s at their "leavers assembly", others use the available resources to contribute to the schools transition process in class time or an assembly. Find out more at <http://bit.ly/its-your-move>. The books can also be ordered through the GLO bookshop in Motherwell.
