Recruitment Pack

ASN Outdoor Programmes Instructor

April 2026

Hello.

Thank you for taking the time to check out this new ASN outdoor instruction opportunity with SU Scotland, based at Alltnacriche.

Our shared vision is to see every child and young people in Scotland exploring the Bible and responding to the significance of Jesus.

We're probably best known for our work in schools, with churches and in SU centres. not to mention our dynamic programme of holidays and camps for children in P5 through to S6 where we say to every child and young person, "You belong here."

Alongside our existing residential ministry, we're establishing a dedicated strand of ministry to support children and young people who face additional support needs, trauma or barriers to social engagement.

Living on site and being part of an intentional community, you'll design and run outdoor sessions that support emotional regulation, build social connection and help young people flourish. You'll also help shape new activities and strengthen inclusive practice with the team, while building relationships with local schools and partners.

This ministry is already making a difference and we're seeking the right person to help take this forward.

Please enjoy reading through the enclosed recruitment pack and if you have questions about the role prior to applying, just shout.

Meantime, be assured of our prayers for you and others giving serious consideration to whether this could be the right thing for you.

ABOUT SU SCOTLAND

Scripture Union Scotland is part of the worldwide family of Scripture Union movements that began in the nineteenth century and now operate in over 130 countries across the world.

We are a Christian charity working in partnership with local churches and other sympathetic organisations. More than 2,000 volunteers are involved in helping to run our activities, together with around 100 staff and associate workers.

- Our SU Holidays and weekends are the place to be for high energy activities, music, crafts, friends, fun, camping and a whole lot more with Magnitude. Festival adding a dynamic new dimension to the mix.
- Our residential centres are places of adventure, escape, discovery and hope, hosting thousands of school pupils on residential breaks each year.
- We work in schools throughout the academic year. SU workers and volunteers contribute to the curriculum in many of Scotland's schools.
- Our discipleship programme helps young people to grow, learn, explore and develop leadership skills.

OUR VISION & VALUES

Our vision is to see every child and young person in Scotland exploring the Bible and responding to the significance of Jesus.

Everything we do is governed by two core values: dependence on God and deepening relationships.

We love to see children and young people:

- Feeling valued and accepted in every encounter with SU Scotland being able to express their views, engage with others, and grow in confidence as they recognise and develop their abilities.
- Exploring the key stories and events from the Bible, reading and studying the Bible on their own and with others, and growing in their understanding of God and what it means to follow him.
- Having opportunities to learn about Jesus. Making the decision to follow Jesus, and having the confidence to reflect this in their choices, attitudes and actions.

OUR STRATEGY 2024+

JOB OVERVIEW

Job Title: ASN Outdoor Programmes Instructor

Salary: £20,631 – £21,889 (depending upon experience) per annum, plus accommodation (which carries a value of £5,589 for pension purposes) plus generous employer pension and other benefits contributions

Location: Alltnacriche, SU Scotland's residential centre near Aviemore

Contract: Full time*/fixed-term for 3 years *Part time hours may also be considered

Managed By: Chief Instructor

Key Relationships:

Internal: Alltnacriche team, volunteers, SU Holidays team, ASN Development Lead, other centres' instruction staff

External: School staff, Local ASN coordinators, families of participants, local partners and funders.

Purpose: This post exists to deliver and develop outdoor learning initiatives that expresses SU Scotland's vision, particularly among children and young people with diverse support needs – including those with additional support needs (ASN), experiences of trauma, and social marginalisation. The initial focus will be on delivering the Growing Together Programme – a structured outdoor intervention that helps children build emotional regulation, social connection, and confidence through relational, values-led practice.

TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Programme Delivery and Development

- Deliver outdoor instruction across Alltnacriche's wider programme for schools, youth groups, and visiting organisations, bringing inclusive and relational practice into every setting.
- Identify and respond to the additional support needs of individuals within mainstream groups, working with colleagues to ensure every participant is appropriately supported throughout their visit.
- Deliver the Growing Together Programme and other outdoor initiatives designed specifically for children and young people with additional support needs, ensuring sessions are purposeful, well-managed, and rooted in relational practice. This will include transporting young people between school and Alltnacriche and to activity venues.
- Create and facilitate outdoor experiences that build emotional regulation, confidence, and a sense of belonging.
- Adapt and develop the programme in response to emerging needs and feedback from participants, families, and partners.
- When appropriate, contribute to SU Holidays hosted at Alltnacriche by supporting campers who have additional needs and sharing inclusive practice with volunteers and team members.
- Champion safeguarding, wellbeing, and good practice in all settings.

Community and Partner Engagement

- As part of our team, build on existing relationships with schools, ASN teams, and community professionals to help grow a well-regarded, embedded local service.
- Represent SU Scotland in external conversations with humility, professionalism, and purpose.

Relational Practice and Participant Support

- Build safe, consistent relationships with children and young people, responding to behaviour through a trauma-informed, relational lens that sees each individual as more than their presenting needs.
- Respond to complex needs with empathy, curiosity, and clear boundaries that promote trust and growth.
- Recognise and attend to the emotional environment of a group, noticing when individuals are struggling and adjusting your approach accordingly.
- Provide opportunities for young people to explore big questions and engage with the Bible in ways that are sensitive, invitational, and age-appropriate.

Reflective Practice and Evaluation

- Contribute to a culture of reflection and improvement, using debriefs, stakeholder feedback, and session review to inform your work.
- Help assess and evidence the impact of programmes on participants' wellbeing, relationships, and engagement with learning or faith.
- Take personal responsibility for developing your knowledge and skills in ASN inclusion, trauma-informed practice, and relational delivery through active engagement with CPD, supervision, and peer reflection.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

To participate fully in the life and ministry of the Alltnacriche Centre. This will include:

- Attend and take a share in leading staff prayer and Bible study.
- Build partnerships with existing and potential supporters to encourage prayer, giving and volunteering support for your specific role and the wider ministry of SU Scotland as appropriate to your role.
- Contribute to Alltnacriche Prayer News
- Assist with daily operation of the centre, including cleaning and rotational duty cover to support guests.

In common with all SU Scotland staff members:

- Further the aims and objectives of SU Scotland;
- Undertake personal development through active participation in annual work reviews, supervision and identified training (internal, external or other) as required;
- Take part in other SU Scotland activities where appropriate;
- Demonstrate commitment to the SU Scotland ethos, vision, values and work practices, and the wider ministry of SU in Scotland and beyond.
- To build ministry partnerships with existing and potential supporters to encourage prayer, financial giving and volunteering support for your specific role and the wider ministry of SU Scotland. The means of doing this will be tailored according to the nature of your role and personal circumstances and an action plan agreed with your line manager.

Occupational Requirement

- An Occupational Requirement applies in terms of the Equality Act (part 1, schedule 9). This post requires the occupant to have a personal faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and to believe the Bible to be fully trustworthy, in all that it affirms, and the highest authority for faith and life in keeping with SU Scotland's statement of faith. These principles require to be applied alongside the professional skills required in this role.
- The above list is intended to give an indication of the range of duties for the role. Other tasks/responsibilities, appropriate to the remit, will be expected as required.
- The role may require weekend and evening work, as well as working outdoors in a variety of weather conditions.
- Appointment will be subject to a satisfactory PVG Scheme Disclosure.
