

Your generosity creates safe spaces at SU residential where young people can talk, pray, and be heard.

You are helping reverse the trend — church attendance among 18–24s rose from 4% to 16%, and with you, it can grow again.

You're opening doors: SU's CoMISSION programme gives young people SQA accredited qualifications & brighter futures.

Because of you, young people are finding confidence and purpose — like one camper who said, 'I feel like a new person.'

You are making God's Word accessible — £100 provides 5 dyslexia-friendly Bibles.

Your gift helps create inclusive resources and events. £125 subsidises a weekend for a young person with ASN.

You are providing safe, faith-filled digital spaces where young people can connect and explore Jesus.

You are helping reach those who couldn't otherwise access holidays and events — with love, dignity, and the hope of Jesus.

You made Magnitude possible — nearly 2,000 young people worshipped, learned, and grew in faith.

You are bringing the Bible to life in local communities — 378 SU Groups met in Scotland last year.

You are building trust — SU leaders and volunteers offer safe spaces and listening ears.

You help children feel safe and loved at SU Holidays — many hear for the first time that they're valued by God.

You created a space where one camper said, 'I could talk about God and be myself.'

Your gift of £136 subsidises a place on our 'Chosen' weekend for families with adopted children.

You help them find connection and courage like one school pupil who said, 'SU Groups let us find people to connect with.'

You are connecting them with peers and mentors for discipleship through SU's Equip events.

Your support helps cover the cost of activities on our annual Ukrainian holiday — bringing joy and belonging.

You made 32 community missions possible — reaching 1,480 children and young people.

You are equipping schools with digital tools. £200 could provide Explore Christmas resources across Scotland.

You created a space where one camper said, 'I could showcase my individuality without fear.'

You are helping young people discover prayer as powerful and personal. 'I learned how to pray,' said one S5 girl.

You are opening the door to outdoor adventures and faith — £140 helps a young person attend an SU Holiday.

Your gift of £200 helps us partner with Prison Fellowship Scotland to subsidise a holiday for a child in need.

With your help we can reach more children and young people in Scotland
