

SCHOOLS LIVE - Available free from Scripture Union at www.schoolslive.org, SchoolsLive provides Bible-based resources for Christian groups in schools, and puts a wealth of activities and ideas for your work with children and young people at your fingertips. A three year rolling programme of material is available with ideas for introducing, teaching and reflecting upon each topic by choosing from games, songs, craft and discussion. Material is downloaded either based on your choices or complete as a session for you to choose and edit later.

They've tried to make SchoolsLive as intuitive and easy to use as possible but if you're unsure about how to use the site to its full potential, you can take a step by step SchoolsLive Tour from the "About Schoolslive" page.

There is a three year rolling programme of material on the website mixing short themes with stand-alone sessions and seasonal material.

JAFFA, stands for Jesus A Friend For All and was originally published in three "year-long" books by SU Australia. Written especially for lunchtime groups with 30 minutes or so to work with, this material is an excellent starting point even if some of the illustrations may be slightly cultural or dated.

They have now been out of print for some time but we have obtained the PDF files for Book 1 and made them available on the SU Scotland website (The Primary Resources page can be found on the left hand side of this secondary resources page www.suscotland.org.uk/resources).

All three JAFFA Books can be bought as PDF downloads from SU Australia's website (www.sushop.com.au) or downloaded for free as individual units from www.max7.org/channels/jaffa Max7 describes itself as "the world's open source ministry resource library, helping leaders disciple children and young people." As such materials uploaded by contributors around the world and available to use just as widely. You might find a course of work to deliver but may find it useful for a video clip or set of images to illustrate stories such as The two house builders, the feeding of the 5,000 or seeing the resurrection from the perspective of three flies and a maggot.

EYELEVEL is Scripture Union's project to find new ways to make Jesus known to children and young people who are unconnected to a church community. It aims to provide ideas, resources and training to enable and support Christians and churches to look out for, make contact with and make Jesus known to these young people and children. Many of the themed books are follow up material for the popular Holiday Club themes such as Showstoppers, Rocky's Plaice etc, but others are stand alone titles. Typically written for an afterschool or evening club, there will be some adjustment needed for a lunchtime club, i.e. spread one section over two weeks perhaps using the DVD accompaniment to tell the story one week and another method the following week. Materials are available as A4 books available from many sources or as PDF downloads bought from www.scriptureunion.org.uk/shop. The most popular tiles in primary SU Groups are likely to be:

Awesome! a programme of 8 sessions in which children follow the signs from the Gospel of John to discover who Jesus is.

Streetwise a journey down Luke Street visiting houses mentioned in Luke's Gospel to find out why Jesus went there and what happened when he did!

High Five shares stories in Mark, where Jesus touched the lives of those around him. It challenges children to make a further step of commitment to Jesus and to think and care for others in the world around them.

Take Away takes children through a story from Paul's life and helps children discover more about God through Paul's adventures.

Mosaic is published by SU specifically to meet the needs that many churches express where a small number of children meet together across a broad age range. It works equally well in an SU Group setting with or without the wide age range.

There are a handful of books in the series each with 15-20 weeks' worth of material in an A4 book available from Christian bookshops or from the SU website where the PDF download can also be purchased for £11.99.

Titles include: God with us, Celebrations, God's Power and God is Good.
