Ferrywell Youth Project (31 – 33 Pennywell Road, EH4 4PJ)

PROJECT WORKER – FULL TIME

(Salary £25,932 - £27,891 dependent on experience, plus pension scheme)

Got charged. Can't be bothered with school and not attending. Have nowhere to stay after a row at home. These are real life situations for some of our young people. Are you a good listener and want young people to make good choices?

FYP want to see young people valued and supported through these times. We want to see our young people living lives characterised by positive, healthy and responsible choices.

FYP grew out of years of SU Scotland work in the Pilton, Muirhouse and Drylaw area of Edinburgh. We are a project rooted in Christian faith and values. We want to see our young people thrive and have a significant impact on their community, celebrating with them the progress that is made.

In the last five years we have gone from no paid staff to two full-time and one part-time workers. We currently have over 24 wonderful volunteers. We have a well resourced and accessible building in the heart of the community and young people often drop in.

If you are a Christian with school and/or community based experience working with young people and are enthusiastic, pastorally sensitive, have good communication skills and are able to work well within a team and with other organisations and agencies, please contact us for more information: info@ferrywell.org.uk or 07950016429. An information pack is available on request or from here. This is a 3 year fixed term post.

For this post, it is important that you are committed to FYP's vision and ethos and are able to demonstrate this through your commitment and motivation. It is also an Occupational Requirement (Equality Act – part 1, schedule 9), that the post holder is a committed Christian. Appointment will be subject to a satisfactory PVG Scheme Disclosure.

The closing date for applications - Wednesday 10th November 2021 at 5pm
Interviews on Friday 19th November 2021.

- Contribute to and participate with the one-to-one mentoring programme for young people, including selecting and training volunteers.
- Co-ordinate and develop the programme and activities at evening weekly secondary groups (DIME), ensuring volunteers are equipped to disciple and help young people explore the Christian faith.
- Recruiting volunteers and providing pastoral support to the volunteer team.
- Network with other organisations and stakeholders in the community helping build strong relationships and working together where possible.
- Participate in and help lead residential activities, including Scripture Union holidays and weekends modelling a Christian attitude and lifestyle.
- Help organise, produce suitable resources and lead social activities, including day trips, outings and special events for individuals and groups.
- Work with young people, families and others to ensure that new activities and/or programmes are meeting identified needs
- Undertake detached work and drop in's in order to establish working relationships with young people, especially those on the margins.

School Based Work

- Lead and co-ordinate work within at least one primary school which may include:
- Small group work to address the social, emotional and behavioural needs of those referred to the project.
- Providing support to enable the young people to deal with difficult life situations. This may include 1 to 1 support in school where agreed with the relevant school staff, or in the community when agreed with the Project Leader.
- Keep up-to-date written records of all work with individuals and other relevant groups.
- Communication with school staff, families, local church and community leaders, other professionals and agencies as appropriate.
- Lead lunch-time and after school clubs which may include:
  - Scripture Union groups exploring the Christian faith
  - Special interest groups
  - Informal drop-ins
- Pray for and support children and young people in their spiritual, emotional and social development.

Training

- Be aware of and source appropriate and cost effective training opportunities for volunteers.
- Help deliver and facilitate training for volunteers and young people.

Other

- Work in accordance with our safeguarding policy to ensure the safety of children and young people in all that we do
- Seek out and attend training in order to maintain Continuing Professional Development requirements.
- Undertake personal development through active participation in annual work reviews, supervision and identified training (internal or external).
- Take part in other FYP activities where appropriate.
- Promote the work of FYP by active engagement in building partnerships, for prayer, finance and volunteering, with existing & potential supporters and churches.
- Maintain record of expenses for the project and of groupwork and individual work.
- Any other task required for the contingency of this service as directed by the line manager.
- Appointment will be subject to a satisfactory PVG Scheme Disclosure.

Occupational Requirement

An Occupational Requirement applies in terms of the Equality Act (part 1, schedule 9). This post requires the occupant to have a personal faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and to believe the Bible to be fully trustworthy, in all that it affirms and the highest authority for faith and life in keeping with FYP's statement of faith. These principles require to be applied alongside the professional skills required in this role.
