A key part of Bible Alive is Rhyme & Sign – a set of rhyming couplets accompanied by British Sign Language signs which recap the story of the Bible.

If you would like to take the story of the Bible into schools in your area, you might be interested in the next Bible Alive training course.

The closing date for applications is

Wednesday 21st January. Videos will be sent to you in January to allow you to learn Rhyme & Sign ahead of the training course.

There are spaces on the course for a maximum of 8 people so early booking is advised. Priority will be given to people planning to use Bible Alive in schools.

The training course will include demonstrations and practice in various story telling techniques as well as advice on putting together a Bible Alive programme, planning lessons, and communicating effectively with schools.

To use Bible Alive in schools, it will be necessary to register as an SU Scotland volunteer. This process will be explained at the training course, but you can find out more about SU Scotland at <https://www.suscotland.org.uk/who-we-are/>

Quotes from pupils...

I loved it, and the Bible is more fun than I thought.

It is good fun when we act out scenes from the Bible. It makes you understand more.

I thought it was exciting and fun and really did bring the Bible alive.

I liked all of it but the best was the Jesus parts.

I learned about the miracles and the amazingness of God.

It was the best and I want to do it again.

We have learned so much. Bible Alive is awesome!

Quotes from Teachers...

Bible Alive was a fun, interactive way of teaching about the stories in the Bible. The children thoroughly enjoyed the sessions and learnt a lot from it.

Teaching staff who were present were amazed at the way in which the children listened and remembered as well as the interactive nature of the lessons. I personally have not seen anything better in this area of the curriculum. (Senior Teacher)
