Recruitment Pack

Learning Manager

Hello.

Thank you for taking the time to explore this Learning Manager post.

Our shared vision is to see every child and young person in Scotland exploring the Bible and responding to the significance of Jesus.

People are key to making that vision possible. We have a staff team of around 140 and over 2,500 volunteers. We want to invest in each individual, ensuring they have access to training of the highest quality to enable them to work effectively with Scotland's children and young people.

This role will require working alongside different members of the team to develop and deliver a coordinated approach to training across SU Scotland.

Please enjoy reading through the enclosed recruitment pack, and if you have questions about the role prior to applying, just shout.

Meantime, be assured of our prayers for you and others giving serious consideration to whether this could be the right thing for you.

This is an exciting time of growth in SU Scotland ministry as we seek to see many thousands more young lives transformed by hearing and knowing of God's love for them!

ABOUT SU SCOTLAND

Scripture Union Scotland is part of the worldwide family of Scripture Union movements that began in the nineteenth century and now operate in over 120 countries across the world.

We are a Christian charity working in partnership with local churches and other sympathetic organisations.

- Our SU Holidays and weekends are the place to be for high energy activities, music, crafts, friends, fun, camping and a whole lot more with the Magnitude Festival adding a dynamic new dimension to the mix.
- Our residential centres are places of adventure, escape, discovery and hope, hosting thousands of school pupils on residential breaks each year.
- We work in schools throughout the academic year. SU workers and volunteers contribute to the curriculum in many of Scotland's schools.
- Our discipleship programme helps young people to grow, learn, explore and develop leadership skills.

OUR VISION & VALUES

Our vision is to see every child and young person in Scotland exploring the Bible and responding to the significance of Jesus.

Everything we do is governed by two core values: dependence on God and deepening relationships.

We love to see children and young people:

- Feeling valued and accepted in every encounter with SU Scotland being able to express their views, engage with others, and grow in confidence as they recognise and develop their abilities.
- Exploring the key stories and events from the Bible, reading and studying the Bible on their own and with others, and growing in their understanding of God and what it means to follow him.
- Having opportunities to learn about Jesus. Making the decision to follow Jesus, and having the confidence to reflect this in their choices, attitudes and actions.

OUR STRATEGY 2024+

External: Training providers, local church leaders, volunteers

TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

We are committed to employing staff who will recruit, motivate, train, equip and support our volunteers. Being an organisation which employs a small number of staff, we work in partnership with a larger number of volunteers to realise our vision through work in schools, residential, missions, training programmes and on-line.

Professional development is taken seriously for those on the staff team and regular training opportunities are provided within and out with SU Scotland.

General

- Model qualities of Christian character and commitment and have a personal commitment to spiritual growth and development
- Attendance at staff meetings for prayer
- Demonstrate commitment to the wider SU Scotland staff team, through attendance at SU Scotland staff retreats and key events such as the annual Big Celebration
- Be committed to pray for and support young people in their spiritual, emotional and social development

Training Coordination and development

- Create learning pathways for different staff and volunteer groupings
- Build on a recent training needs analysis to ensure training priorities are actioned and an infrastructure is created to support ongoing learning and development.
- Work in partnership with the HR Partner, Volunteers Manager and Departmental Leads to ensure that training initiatives align with SU Scotland's strategic plan and priorities
- In conjunction with the Head of CRM and Analytics, create a Learning Hub/Platform for staff and volunteers
- Identify subject matter experts (in-house and external) to provide specific training
- Ensure that training sessions take account of different learning styles and preferences
- Design courses for staff and volunteers working closely with relevant subject matter experts and ensuring that the content is aligned to clear outcomes
- Investigate potential e-learning tools (feedback and surveys) and implement for all training
- Develop evaluations tools (feedback and surveys) and implement for all training, leading to effective reflection, reporting and improvement

Training Delivery

- Arrange, develop, and where appropriate, deliver engaging and interactive classroom and virtual training sessions
- Organise "train the trainer" courses equipping staff and key volunteers with the necessary skills to train others
- Gather course feedback to continually identify areas of improvement and make necessary ongoing adjustments to training courses
- Ensure trainers use engaging and up-to-date training techniques to facilitate effective learning and skill development
- Ensure training is of consistently high quality, considers different learning styles and is fully evaluated
- Maintain a keen understanding of training trends, best practice and development

Training Reporting

- Set annual OKRs for training and report quarterly on progress
- Create a quarterly training report for the Leadership Team with key training metrics
- Ensure all training and refresher training undertaken is recorded within the CRM database/HR information system

General Administration

- Keep up-to-date records of all work with individuals and relevant groups
- Act as budget holder and ensure activities keep to budget
- Work with the Fundraising team to ensure applications are made to grant funding bodies

Growing ministry partners

Each member of the SU Scotland staff team is involved in support raising to an appropriate extent. Fundraising colleagues will resource you for this task and your line manager will agree an action with you that reflects the nature of your role. Time is set aside as part of the working week for these tasks. Action plans may include:

- personal approaches to potential ministry partners encouraging prayer and financial support
- regularly updating your action plan and keep a track of tasks undertaken
- regular communication with existing prayer and financial supporters to ensure they are well-informed and their contribution appreciated
- being aware of volunteering opportunities and promoting these as appropriate

Other responsibilities

- Supervise the work of the Training Administrator
- Be committed to a high level of teamwork within the Department, wider organisation and amongst volunteers
- Network with counterparts fulfilling similar roles with other charities/organisations
- Be committed to a collaborative approach with projects, ensuring that communication with internal and external stakeholders is of the highest standard

Occupational Requirement

An Occupational Requirement applies in terms of the Equality Act (part1, schedule 9). This post requires the occupant to have a personal faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and to believe the Bible to be fully trustworthy, in all that it affirms, and the highest authority for faith and life in keeping with SU Scotland's statement of faith. These principles require to be applied alongside the professional skills required in this role.

The above list is intended to give an indication of the range of duties for the role. Other tasks/responsibilities appropriate to the remit, will be expected as required.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

In common with all SU Scotland staff members:

- Further the aims and objectives of SU Scotland
- Undertaking professional development through active participation in annual appraisals, supervision and internal or external training as required or individually identified.
- Participate in other SU Scotland activities where appropriate.
- Demonstrating commitment to the SU Scotland ethos, vision, values and work practices, and the wider ministry of SU in Scotland and beyond.
